

Redruth Miners' Day

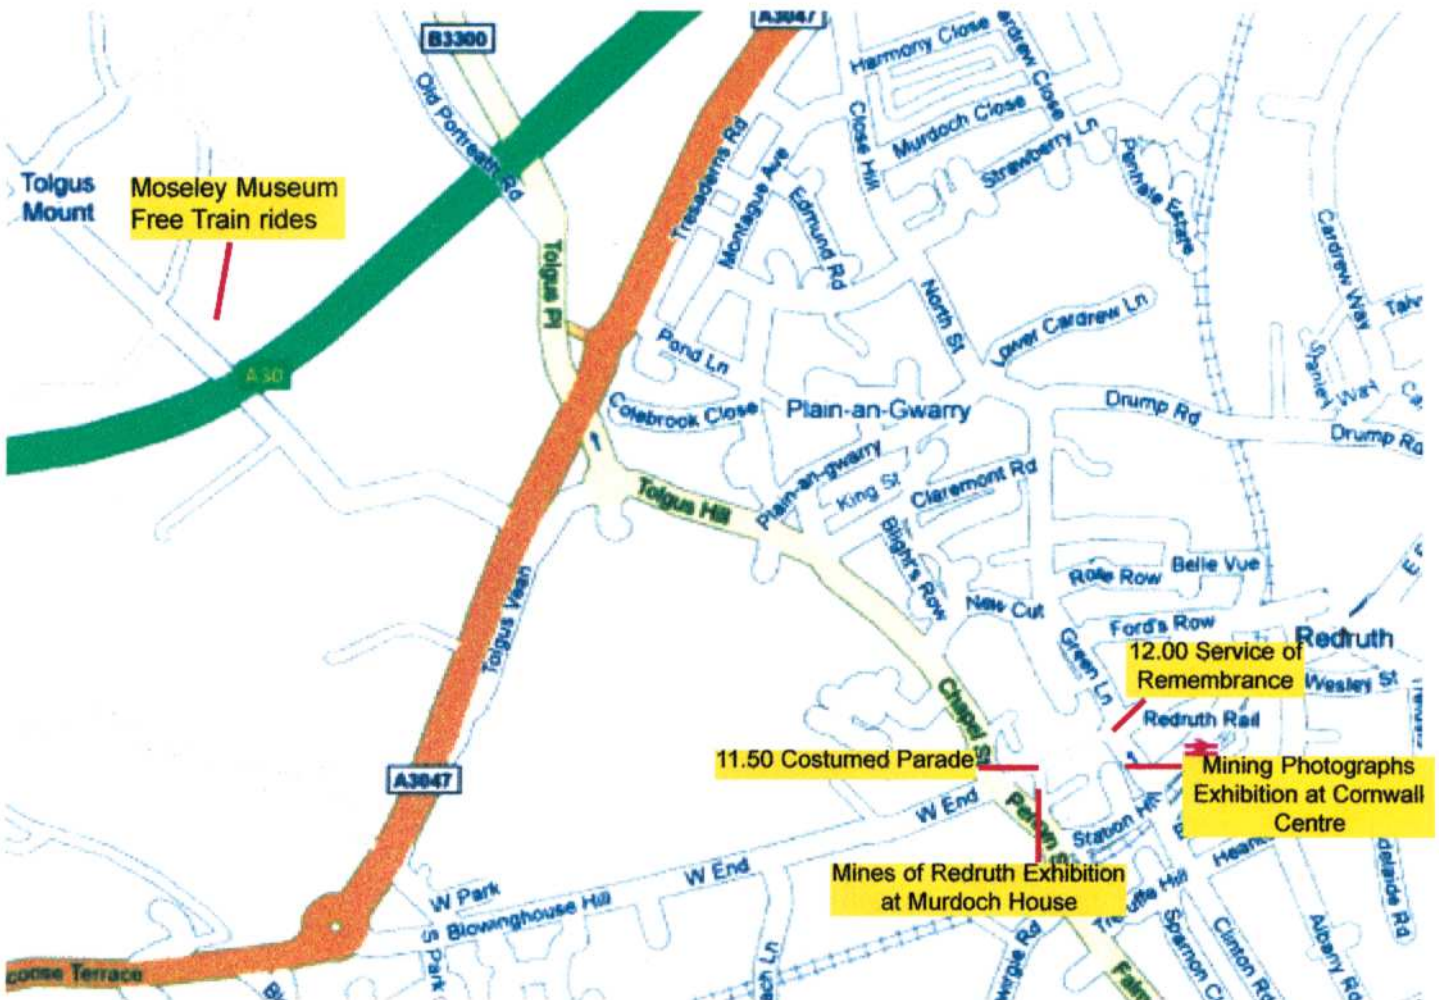

2 September 2009

Events

10-5 Cornwall Centre	Exhibition of some of the many Mining Photographs in the collection
10-5 Moseley Museum	Free Train rides on mining type locomotives and equipment (see map)
10-4 Murdoch House	Mines of Redruth Exhibition, Cross Street (see map)
11.50 Fore Street	Costumed Parade from the Regal Cinema to the Town Clock
12.00 Town Clock	Service of Remembrance, remembering those miners home and abroad who lost their lives in mines.
13.00 Town Clock	Re-enactment of the Case of the Miner selling his wife!

Traders and members of the public are encouraged to dress in suitable costume representing Miners (old and new), Balmaidens, Adventurers and anyone else connected with Redruth's rich mining heritage.

Not for nothing is Redruth the World Capital of Cornish Mining and it is for we, the people of Redruth, to celebrate and enjoy our heritage.

We hope that this will become an annual event as part of the week celebrating the annual Gorsedd. In future years we hope that visitors and local people will participate in this our tribute to Redruth's Mining Heritage. Redruth is part of the World Heritage site and is proud to present:
